

Director Sentiment Survey 2018

The Institute of Directors (IoD) with ASB has released its 2018 Director Sentiment Survey report. The survey takes the pulse of the director community in New Zealand.

Economic performance

17%

expect economic performance to improve in the next 12 months, down from 30% in 2017

Business confidence

52%

expect their organisation's performance to improve in the next 12 months, down from 69% in 2017

Labour capability

28%

said labour quality and capability is the single biggest risk facing their organisation. For the second year in a row this was the highest rated risk facing organisations

Future of work

66%

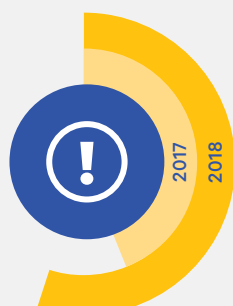

of boards have discussed the impact of technology, automation and/or artificial intelligence on their organisation, workforce, and future skills needs

Ethics risk

55%

of boards assessed ethics risks in the last 12 months, up from 44% in 2017

Whistleblowing

44%

discussed whistleblowing and how to make speak-up provisions more effective in the last 12 months, up from 32% in 2017

